

Sixth Bi-Annual Meeting

Thursday, November 18th, 2010
Millennium Hotel, Laclede Ballroom
St. Louis, MO
12:30 – 4:00 PM

Program

12:30 REGISTRATION OPENS (no fee)

- 1:00 Christopher Hertzog, Georgia Institute of Technology
A Semi-new Theory of Feeling-of-Knowing Accuracy
- 1:20 Jason S. Nomi & Anne M. Cleary, Colorado State University
Recognition without Identification and the Feeling of Knowing: A Comparison of Retrospective and Prospective Familiarity Judgments
- 1:40 Sean Lane, Stephanie Groft, Kathleen Vieira, Leslie Butler, & Tanya Karam, Louisiana State university
Nudging Memory Back on Target: Test Feedback Improves Subsequent Source Monitoring Accuracy

2:00 BREAK

- 2:10 Erika Carlson, Simine Vazire, Washington University, & Richard M. Furr, Wake Forest
Calibration in Interpersonal Perception: Do People Know when their Social Judgments are Accurate?
- 2:30 Qin Zhao, Western Kentucky University
Tenacity of Anchoring in Metacomprehension Judgments Under High Accuracy Motivation
- 2:50 Valerie Thompson, Jamie P. Turner, Gordon Pennycook, University of Saskatchewan, & Jonathan Evans, University of Plymouth
Choosing Between Intuition and Reason: The Role of Metacognition in Initiating Analytic Thinking

3:10 BREAK

Keynote Address

- 3:20 Larry Jacoby, Washington University
New Directions for Investigating Metacognition: Birds, False Hearing, and Faces